Practical Insights for the Serious Investor

Scott Smith, Esq., Founder and CEO of Royal Legal Solutions, is a dynamic podcast guest who prides himself in successfully conveying the essentials in asset protection to audiences nationwide.

Scott is no stranger to high stakes litigation and has spent his career deconstructing asset protection structures and developing strategies that serve both to protect what you own, as well as leverage your income and maximize your tax savings.

With experience in entrepreneurship, starting several successful companies and owning real estate in 10 states, Scott will pull from his expertise as a lawyer to put a new and valuable perspective on business ownership for your audience.

No one wants to get sued, but if you plan to start a company the question isn't "if" you get sued, but "when" you get sued. Scott is the attorney who will have your back! He's a smart, savvy, attorney, with a great sense of humor and a gift for simplifying the complex. Scott shares tools and tactics listeners can use today.

Be prepared to discover new levels of insight into insider knowledge regarding umbrella policies, building and scaling a business, LLCs, trust funds and more.
