

RICHARD A. BECHTOL

Asset Protection for Real Estate Investors

Make Yourself
Legally Invisible

Estate Planning to Build Generational Wealth

Avoiding Probate to Protect Assets Long-Term

Maintain Anonymity by Avoiding Probate

Protecting Children
through Estate Planning

Tax Planning through Estate Planning

Generational Planning for the Serious Investor

Richard A. Bechtol is from Coshocton, Ohio, a small town roughly an hour east of Columbus. He attended Shawnee State University and graduated with a Bachelor's in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting. While attending Shawnee State University, Richard was a two-time Captain of the Golf Team, enlisted with the Ohio Army National Guard as a junior, and was President of the Student Veteran Organization.

Upon graduation from Shawnee State University, he volunteered for a one year deployment to Bagram Airfield in Afghanistan. Five weeks after arriving home he began classes in pursuit of his Juris Doctorate from the University of Dayton School of Law completing the program in 2 years.

He was actively involved in the Veteran and Military Advocacy Group, the Twenty-First Amendment Society, Honor Council, and the Veteran Treatment Court during his time at University of Dayton School of Law.

Richard's previous law positions have included clerk at Sherrets Law Office, clerk and associate at Mularski Bonham Dittmer Phillips & Steele, and associate at Jarvis Law Firm, specializing in Estate Planning, Asset Protection, Elder Law, Probate, and Trust Administration .

Richard currently lives with his girlfriend, their newborn son, and their dog Ginsburg.

 richard@royallegalsolutions.com  561-308-5778

 /in/scott-royal-smith  /in/company/royal-legal-solutions  @Royal_Legal_Law

 /RoyalLegalSolutions/  royallegalsolutions.com